There are also Federal borrowing limits depending on student budget and year in college (i.e. Freshman or Sophomore).
4. How much previous loan debt do you have? Using your FAFSA PIN#, go to www.nslds.ed.gov and record your total loan debt here $
Print and attach to this form. If zero, write zero
If you do not know your PIN, please visit www.pin.ed.gov to request a duplicate PIN.
5. How much will your monthly payment be over 10 years? Go to http://www.finaid.org/calculators/loanpayments.phtml
Use #3 & #4 above to find your monthly payment. Enter the calculated estimated monthly payment amount here: $
Print and attach to this form.

*Note: Per the Dept. of Education, on a case-by-case basis, schools may refuse to certify/originate the loan for a borrower. Similarly, schools may certify/originate a loan for an amount less than the borrower's maximum eligibility. However, schools must ensure that these decisions are made on a case-by-case basis, and do not constitute a pattern or practice that denies access to borrowers because of race, sex, color, income, religion, national origin, age, handicapped status, or selection of a particular lender or guarantor. If loan is reduced or denied, student will be notified in writing.

I understand I am requesting financial aid in the form of a debt that must be repaid. I understand to have loan funds disbursed I must be enrolled and attending at least 6 credit hours that count towards an eligible program. I understand loan funds are split evenly between the loan period chosen above. Your signature acknowledges you have read this document and you (the student) completed the requirements.
